

Interaction Programme on Gender Based Violence with professionals of film sector
27 October 2009

With an aim to create a platform for the dialogue and discourse on the issue of GBV associated in film industry, in script writing etc, SAS conducted a one day interaction program with the Nepalese film directors, writers, actors and journalists, which was an initiation to have a look on the GBV in film sectors. The program was much appreciated by the participants as it was an opportunity to bring out the issues and also try and look at the remedies that need to put up in action. Famous Actor/Superstar Ms. Karishma Manandhar expressed that the program has been fruitful to discuss the GBV issues in the film industry and also suggested to have a series of such interaction in future.
